ASSISTANT/ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR (2) K-12 EDUCATIONAL LEADERSHIP
School of Education, North Dakota State University

NDSU invites inquiries and applications for two, nine (9) month Assistant/Associate Professor positions with a primary focus on K-12 Educational Leadership with one beginning January 1, 2020 (non-tenure track) or as negotiated and one August 16, 2020 (non-tenure or tenure-track) or as negotiated. Our ideal colleagues will be committed to advancing our dynamic and growing program – including an innovative Leadership Academy model, possess leadership experience in K-12 education to complement the existing faculty inspire and challenge future leaders so they may meet the evolving demands of educational leadership, contribute meaningfully to department governance, and foster a collaborative community.

Responsibilities
Responsibilities include teaching and developing educational leadership courses; advising graduate students; supervising administrative practicum experiences; conducting research and scholarly activities; participating on committees at the unit, college, and university levels; and communicating with North Dakota educational associations, agencies, and K-12 schools.

Minimum Qualifications
- Earned doctorate (completed by the time of employment) in Educational Leadership, Educational Administration, or a closely related field
- Evidence of effective oral and written communications skills
- Ability to effectively interact and collaborate with diverse colleagues, students, administrators, and the public
- Experience in a US K-12 education leadership position at the building, district, regional, or state level (Non-Tenure Only)
- Demonstrated ability to develop a research agenda in an area relevant to K-12 Educational Leadership (Tenured/Tenure-Track Only)

Preferred Qualifications
- Evidence of providing high-quality instruction, advising, and mentoring at the graduate level at the College/University level
- The ability to diversify program area faculty in a way that prioritizes, values, and celebrates diversity in all forms and ensure a sense of belonging, respect, and inclusion that supports the success of each member of the community
- Evidence of the potential for developing or advancing a research agenda in an area relevant to K-12 Ed Leadership as appropriate to non-tenure-track faculty (Non-Tenure Track Only)
- Evidence of an active program of scholarly inquiry in an area relevant to K-12 Educational Leadership (Tenured/Tenure-Track Only)

Application Procedures visit the Human Resources website (https://jobs.ndsu.edu/postings/). The search will be conducted in compliance with North Dakota open records laws. North Dakota State University is an Equal Opportunity/Affirmative Action Employer and an NSF ADVANCE institution. Women and traditionally under-represented groups are strongly encouraged to apply.

Questions: Dr. Sarah Crary, Search Committee Co-Chair (Sarah.Crary@ndsu.edu)