

Associate Dean

Rider University invites applications for an Associate Dean in the College of Education & Human Services. The Associate Dean is a key player in increasing the visibility of Rider's undergraduate and graduate programs, the CEHS, and Rider University in that this individual is expected to:

- Implement the Rider Strategic Plan;
- Promote CEHS, including the work of the faculty and academic programs.
- Lead assessment and evaluation processes to enhance CEHS and Rider effectiveness;
- Assume full responsibility for achieving CAEP accreditation, edTPA or other performance assessment system implementation, and positive interaction with NJDOE personnel to accomplish ongoing State Program Review;
- Manage the LiveText performance management system;
- Oversee the CEHS Selected Improvement Initiative;
- Oversee CACREP and NASP accreditations;
- Lead our effort to achieve growth and diversity of student enrollment;
- Develop relationships with area schools and community agencies and organizations that will support both enrollment and fundraising goals;
- Develop and lead summer activities for incoming freshmen and continuing students;
- Lead faculty in identifying grant opportunities, assist with grant writing, and oversee all CEHS grant activity;
- Actively participate in local, regional, and national education and human services associations, including NJDOE, NJACTE, AACTE, CACREP & NASP;
- Generate professional development opportunities for area education and human services associations that will introduce them to Rider and lead to interest in our degree programs;
- Uphold our value for academic excellence in teaching and learning;
- Embrace innovation leading to thoughtful, reasonable change;
- Lobby for positive educational change, as appropriate.

Qualified candidates must have an earned Ed.D. or Ph.D. in education or human services, university teaching experience in education or human services, and P-12 teaching or leadership experience in a field certified by state of New Jersey Department of Education. Additionally the successful individual will have: demonstrated agenda of research, scholarship and service; demonstrated commitment to recruiting and serving the need of diverse populations; demonstrated experience with program development; excellent communication skills (including listening); demonstrated success with CAEP accreditation, experience with edTPA implementation, thorough knowledge of NJDOE regulations for teacher and leader preparation; and the ability to articulate Rider Strategic Plan. Please visit our website at www.rider.edu/hr, 'Employment Opportunities'. Position 303016 to apply for this position. EEO/AA

