

Dean of School of Education

The UAF School of Education is dedicated to shaping the future of education in Alaska! As a leader within the SOE, you will have the opportunity to oversee a diverse group of faculty, staff, and students while driving strategic initiatives that directly impact educational outcomes across the state. With an emphasis on collaboration and innovation, you will engage with Alaskan school districts and statewide organizations, manage program delivery in both Fairbanks and Anchorage, and support Alaska's Indigenous Teacher initiatives. If you're passionate about educational leadership and making a difference in the lives of students and educators, this role offers a rewarding career path in a vibrant, diverse, caring, and inclusive environment.

The SOE is a dynamic and collaborative environment that offers a variety of growth opportunities and meaningful challenges. With a focus on teacher preparation, we take pride in our partnerships with local school districts throughout the Alaskan education community. Our team is known for its innovative projects, commitment to continuous improvement, and dedication to serving the needs of Alaska's diverse population. The Dean of the School of Education is more than a job—it's an opportunity to lead initiatives that have a real impact on the future of Alaska's educators and students.
