Responsibilities include teaching introductory and upper level courses, advising students, working with P-12 partner districts, and contributing to program assessment and accreditation. Professional development, scholarly activity and service to the university are expected. The department welcomes candidates whose experience in teaching, administration, research, or community service has prepared them to contribute to our commitment to diversity and excellence.

Minimum Qualifications:

- Ph.D. or Ed.D. (ABD will be considered) from a regionally accredited institution in an education discipline
- Earned teaching certificate/license in an area of education
- Minimum of three years of full-time teaching experience with P-12 students
- Experience in special education, early childhood education, and/or middle childhood education, with a priority given to candidates with expertise in special education
- Evidence of teaching and leadership effectiveness
- Commitment to collaboration and a strong commitment to excellence in educator preparation
- Demonstrated commitment to equity, diversity, and inclusivity

Preferred Qualifications:

- College or University teaching experience
- Experience developing reciprocal partnerships with P-12 districts
- Knowledge of Specialized Professional Association report writing, state program review processes, and the ability to lead special education, middle childhood, and/or early childhood programs, depending on the successful candidate's background
- Knowledge of and experience with CAEP Standards and the accreditation process

Available: August 1, 2018

Compensation: Competitive, based on qualifications. Fringe benefits include a 10% contribution by the University to TIAA after one year of service; contribution by the University toward hospitalization, major medical, disability, and group life insurance; tuition exchange for qualified dependents.

Equal Opportunity: Mount Union has a strong commitment to nurturing a culturally diverse faculty and student body. We value diversity and demonstrate this in campus initiatives. The University of Mount Union is an equal opportunity employer. The University of Mount Union prohibits discrimination on the basis of race, gender, gender identity or expression, sex, sexual orientation, religion, age, color, creed, national or ethnic origin, veteran status, marital or parental status, pregnancy, disability, or genetic information in employment as now or may hereafter be required by University policy and federal or state law.

Descriptive Information: The University of Mount Union, a private Midwestern institution founded in 1846, offers a rigorous and relevant academic program that is grounded in the liberal arts. Mount Union's 2,300 students can select from 55 broad-based and career-specific undergraduate majors and three graduate programs.
