

Gonzaga University, a Catholic comprehensive liberal arts university sponsored by the Society of Jesus (the Jesuits), seeks an innovative, collaborative, and dynamic leader to serve as the Dean of its School of Education (SOE) and advance the School's mission to prepare socially responsive and discerning practitioners to serve their communities and professions. This is an exceptional opportunity to build on the School's current strengths, expand its engagement with educational and societal movements, and position it to significantly influence policy and practice in the areas and departments served by the SOE: Teacher Education, Special Education, Sport and Physical Education, Counselor Education, School Psychology, and Educational Leadership and Administration.

Reporting to the Provost & Senior Vice President and serving on the Provost's Council, the Dean will lead the School of Education and will be responsible for developing a five- to seven-year plan for the School's continued growth and development. The Dean's responsibilities will include academic programming; assessment of learning, accreditation, and certification; faculty and staff recruitment, development, and review; alumni and community outreach; collaborative strategic planning; budget and personnel management; enrollment management; fund-raising; relationship development with stakeholders; and promoting collaboration within and beyond the University. The successful candidate will be one who joins with colleague Deans, the Provost, and other senior administrators to form a cohesive leadership team for the university; supports the mission of Gonzaga University as a Jesuit, Catholic, and humanistic institution; and will commit to embody that mission in the programs as well as in the overall operation of the School.
