
RELAY/GSE

Vice Provost of Academic Program Relay Graduate School of Education

Relay Graduate School of Education is seeking a Vice Provost of Academic Program to drive the vision, strategy and execution around Relay's innovative curriculum, academic programs, and evolving blend of in-person and online instruction. The ideal candidate would be someone who has led the redesign of K-12 curriculum across a district and/or charter network to align with Common Core Standards and has led schools to strong gains across grades, content, and standards. For example, a Chief Academic Officer of a strong performing school district could be a strong fit. A doctorate degree in a related educational field is also required.

Should you be interested, please submit an application on our job board. Should you know someone who could be a strong fit, please submit their info on our referral bonus page. If you have some ideas for how Relay can better spread the word to the right network of candidates, please reach out to our Managing Director of Talent, Lawrie Givner. Finally, please forward this job along to your networks to help us cast a wider net.

ABOUT US

The Relay Graduate School of Education (Relay) is a national, accredited, nonprofit institution of higher education whose mission is to teach teachers and school leaders to develop in all students the academic skills and strength of character needed to succeed in college and life. Now serving more than 3,000 teachers in 15 sites and 400 leaders nationwide, Relay is eager to bring about transformational change in educator preparation. Relay is committed to using practice and feedback to become the place where a new generation of continuously improving, results-focused individuals can fulfill their destiny in the world's greatest profession. For more information, please visit the Relay website (www.relay.edu) or follow Relay on Twitter (@RelayGSE) and LinkedIn (<http://rly.gs/2qrba>).