

Hanover College Assistant Professor of Education

Hanover College invites applications for a tenure track Assistant Professor position in Education. Required qualifications include an earned terminal degree (ABD accepted with a clear timeline for obtaining the terminal degree before the end of the first year of service to be retained); K-6 classroom teaching experience; experience and emphasis on reading instruction and literacy; strong collaboration skills; and commitment to diversity and inclusion.

The Educator Preparation Program at Hanover College has been accredited since 1954. Hanover College is the oldest private college in Indiana and has established a strong reputation for excellence in teacher preparation.

To apply, visit <https://hanover.hirecentric.com/jobsearch/> to find the Assistant Professor in Education job listing, and upload an application letter, a curriculum vitae, statement of teaching philosophy, transcripts, and a list of 3 references. Contact Professor Dustin Bailey, Search Chair, c/o facultysearch@hanover.edu with any questions. Review of applications begins December 6, 2021, and continues until the position is filled.

Hanover College is an Equal Opportunity Employer committed to providing an inclusive, welcoming, and diverse college environment. We seek candidates of all backgrounds regardless of age, race, color, disability, gender, gender expression, gender identity, national origin, marital status, religion, sex, sexual orientation or veteran status. No person, on the basis of protected status, shall be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to unlawful discrimination, harassment, or retaliation under any College program or activity, including with respect to employment terms and conditions. We embrace diversity and encourage all who are interested to apply.

Overview:

Hanover College is a private liberal arts institution in southeastern Indiana with a total undergraduate enrollment of 1,000. Nestled in 650 acres of a wooded campus and located on the banks of the scenic Ohio River near historic Madison, Indiana, Hanover College is an idyllic place where intellectual achievement and beauty truly intersect. Founded in 1827 as Indiana's first private college, Georgian architecture and majestic trees make Hanover an incredible place in which to live, learn, and work while being conveniently located between the major tri-state cities of Louisville (45 minutes), Indianapolis (95 minutes) and Cincinnati (70 minutes). A rigorous interdisciplinary academic program with 34 majors attracts the best and the brightest students from across the region and beyond.