

Wayne State College
School of Education & Behavioral Sciences
Dean of Education and Behavioral Sciences

Academic Career & Executive Search is pleased to assist Wayne State College in its search for Dean of Education and Behavioral Sciences.

For full consideration, please apply by June 9th.

Wayne State College, a success story in higher ed, is enjoying year over year graduate and undergraduate enrollment growth of 28% as well as increased retention. Additionally, the College has made significant capital investments including major renovations of residence halls, Performing Arts Center, School of Education building, and is about to embark on a $26M Athletic Facility.

The Dean of Education and Behavioral Sciences position is a 12-month administrative position that encompasses both leadership and administrative managerial roles. This role assumes primary responsibility and oversight of personnel, activities, budgets, and facilities in the School of Education and Behavioral Sciences.

Reporting to the Vice President of Academic Affairs, the successful candidate will boast a record of scholarship and research, a keen understanding of P-12 /post-secondary education, and a successful entrepreneurial management style allied with a forward-thinking contemporary institution of higher education.

To view the job advertisement in its entirety, please visit:

<https://acesrch.applicantstack.com/x/detail/a21esjymndgj>

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS

- Earned Doctorate and higher education teaching and/or administrative leadership experience.
- Experience with specialized accreditation and facilitation of program assessment.
- Demonstrated record of teaching, scholarship or creative activities, and service in higher education.
- Strong written, oral, and interpersonal communication skills.
- Ability to foster strategic partnerships with regional stakeholders.

PREFERRED QUALIFICATIONS

- Experience with Education and Behavioral Sciences accreditation (CAEP, CACREP) and delivery of online/distance education programs preferred.
- Certification as a PK-12 teacher/administrator is preferred.

About the Institution

Wayne State College serves as a model of success for regional public higher education. Investments in infrastructure and facilities, expanded academic programs and partnerships, a whole-campus approach to recruitment and retention, and a commitment to strategic planning have yielded 28% growth in enrollment during the past six years, soaring to more than 4,500 students.

To Apply

For full consideration, please apply by June 9th.

To be viewed by the search firm, you must apply directly at:

<https://acesrch.applicantstack.com/x/detail/a21esjymndgj>

Please apply through the application link and do not email applications.

Inquiries, referrals, and nominations are also treated confidentially.

Inquiries and questions: Please send to WSCDeanEducation@acesrch.com

Nominations and referrals: Please send the nominees' name, title, and contact information if available to nominations@acesrch.com

Institution's EEO Statement

The Nebraska State Colleges are equal opportunity institutions and do not discriminate against any student, employee, or applicant based on race, color, national origin, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, disability, religion, or age in employment and education opportunities. Each College has designated an individual to coordinate the Colleges' non-discrimination efforts to comply with regulations implementing Title II of the Americans with Disabilities Act, Titles VI and VII of the Civil Rights Act, Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, the Age Discrimination Act of 1975, and Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act. Inquiries regarding non-discrimination policies and practices may be directed to the Compliance Coordinators assigned at each College and identified on each College website.