

UNIVERSITY OF SOUTH CAROLINA UPSTATE
DEAN OF THE COLLEGE OF EDUCATION, HUMAN PERFORMANCE, AND HEALTH

The University of South Carolina Upstate seeks an enthusiastic, collaborative, and creative leader to serve as the next Dean of the College of Education, Human Performance, and Health (CoEHPH). This is an outstanding opportunity for a caring and community-minded academic administrator to lead distinctive programs that develop educators and professionals who understand the intersections of education, wellness, and community health. The new Dean is expected to begin by July 1, 2022.

The Dean will oversee two academic departments, serve on the Cabinet of USC Upstate Chancellor Dr. Bennie Harris, and engage with regional school districts, non-profit organizations, centers, and health systems. Embracing their integral role within a renowned public, regional university, the faculty and staff of CoEHPH provide rigorous, career-relevant, and accessible education that enhances the quality of life in the Upstate region. With more than 1,000 students, CoEHPH serves the region and state workforce with highly prepared graduates in education, health, and wellness. The College also partners with area healthcare systems with undergraduate programs in child and family development, community health, and exercise and sport science. Accredited by the Council for the Accreditation of Educator Preparation (CAEP), CoEHPH's teacher education programs target mitigating the impact of the teacher shortage for regional partners.

Undergraduate programs. These undergraduate programs in CoEHPH lead to initial certification: Early Childhood Education, Elementary Education, Middle Level Education, Physical Education, Secondary Education (with six distinct concentration areas), and Special Education—Learning Disabilities. The College also offers undergraduate programs in Exercise and Sport Science, Child Development and Family Studies, and Community Health.

Graduate programs. At the graduate level, CoEHPH currently offers three distinctive programs: the M.Ed. in Applied Learning and Instruction, M.Ed. in Visual Impairment, and M.A.T. in Special Education: Visual Impairment. A fourth graduate program has been approved for Fall 2022, the new M.S. in Exercise Science.

All academic programs in CoEHPH focus on developing professional skills that translate to improving the lives of others. The faculty and staff, deeply committed to student success and academic excellence, use an interdisciplinary approach to craft professionals who are able to make a difference in their local communities.
