

Visiting Assistant Professor, Education

The Education Department at The University of Tampa invites applications for a Tenure-Track Assistant or Associate Professor of Education. We seek an enthusiastic and accomplished individual with a terminal degree in Curriculum and Instruction or related field, specializing in an area of Secondary Education. The ideal candidate must possess a minimum of a master's degree in TESOL or related field.

The University of Tampa is a medium-sized, comprehensive, residentially based private institution of 10,566 undergraduate and graduate students. The University is ideally situated on a beautiful 110-acre campus next to the Hillsborough River, adjacent to Tampa's dynamic central business district, a growing, vibrant, diverse metropolitan area. UT reflects this vibrancy; with 24 consecutive years of enrollment growth, UT boasts 300 student organizations, a multicultural student body from 50 states and most of the world's countries, and a "Top Tier" ranking in U.S. News and World Report.

Responsibilities

- Teaching a range of courses related to Curriculum and Instruction and ESOL at the undergraduate level.
- Supervising students in field-based settings.
- Developing and delivering innovative and engaging curriculum that aligns with current educational trends and standards.
- Mentoring and advising students contributing to their academic and professional growth.
- Engaging in and maintaining an active and impactful research agenda in the field of education.
- Collaborating with colleagues in committee work, on research projects, and publications.
- Participating in departmental and university service activities.
- Contributing to the development and enhancement of curriculum and program offerings.

Minimum qualifications

- Earned doctorate (by August 2024) in Curriculum and Instruction or related field, specializing in Secondary Education or related field.
- Possess a minimum of a master's degree in TESOL or related field.
- Documentation of a minimum of three years of recent successful teaching experience in a K-12 setting.
- Evidence of scholarly productivity.
- Demonstrates value for human diversity issues and related social concerns.
- Possess leadership potential and strong commitment to research.

Desired qualifications

- Experience in college level teaching.
- Demonstrates potential or a record of significant contributions to educational research.
- Strong commitment to teaching excellence and student success.

- Excellent communication and interpersonal skills.
- Commitment to diversity, equity, and inclusion.
- Applicants with five years or more of recent teaching experience in K-12 a setting.

Required Attachments

Applicants should be prepared to attach the required documents listed below:

- 1) Cover Letter
- 2) Curriculum Vitae
- 3) Statement of Teaching Philosophy
- 4) Statement of Research Interest
- 5) Sample of Scholarly Writing
- 6) Copy of Graduate Transcripts

Review of applications will begin on October 27, 2023

The University of Tampa is an equal opportunity/affirmative action employer dedicated to excellence through diversity and does not discriminate based on age, race, sex, disability, sexual orientation, national origin, religion, marital status, gender identity, veteran status, or any other non-job-related criteria. The University of Tampa recognizes the importance of a multicultural community of students, faculty, and staff who seek to advance our commitment to diversity. The University invites applications from underrepresented groups and those who have academic experiences with diverse populations.

To apply, visit <https://apptrkr.com/5009559>